You can depend on READ & NICOLL

We don't really believe in testimonials in the ordinary way, but one of our customers said the other day 'If ever we are in a spot we always send the job to you because we know that we can depend on you to pull something out of the bag for us,' so for this once we pass on a testimonial to you—unsolicited, of course. However, it is not only the sudden spurt which is needed but also a consistently high level of service. Making a good plate is, or should be, relatively easy; a matter of taking care allied to technical skill. Giving a good service is a much more difficult undertaking and one which depends on good organisation, a much rarer quality in the business world than either carefulness or technical skill. We pride ourselves that we do that job well and we take heart from the fact that apparently our customers agree with us—you can depend on

INTRODUCTION

NOTWITHSTANDING the restrictions imposed by the Paper Control Orders, the story of Britain's Press during the past year, at least as far as the number of publications is concerned, is one of unparalleled expansion.

An examination of the seventy-third Annual Edition of "Willing's Press Guide" which is now before you will make this most apparent. Not for many years have the names of so many publications been added to a single issue of the "Guide."

The resulting extensions have been in turn an embarrassment because it is obviously not possible to print so many copies as would otherwise be possible but every effort has been made to include all essential matter without unduly restricting the number of copies available.

The newcomers cover varying interests from purely trade or technical matters to fiction and include local and religious journals. Their establishment was the logical outcome of the relaxation of the embargo on new publications and if all proposals materialize they will be but the vanguard of a whole army of new ventures.

In particular a lively activity is to be detected in areas where new Towns or extensions to existing ones are planned.

As a matter of interest this edition contains details of the following publications issued in Great Britain, Northern Ireland, Channel Islands and Eire:—Daily Newspapers—136, Sunday Newspapers—17, London, Suburban, Provincial, County and Local Newspapers—1,286, Periodicals, Magazines, Reviews, Trade, Technical, Specialised and Religious Journals—3,172. Annuals, etc., 1,075.

Because of the larger volume occupied by the British Lists, it has not been possible to develop the Overseas sections to the extent it had been hoped, but these features have not been overlooked and more information is given than heretofore. In particular the English Addresses of Overseas Publications have been made as complete as possible.

A short but useful innovation is the inclusion of Cinema Newsreels with relevant data but in general the "Guide" is made up of all the usual lists and indexes which have proved so popular.

The task of compiling this issue has been made easier by the courtesy and assistance of the many publishers who answered requests for information and to them appreciation is tendered.

Following the practice of past years, the names of journals making charges for blocks for illustrating or journalistic fees for reviewing industrial or other establishments have been omitted.

All Publishers are asked in their own interests to notify the Editor of all changes and developments as early as possible, as they enable him to answer enquiries more expeditiously. Subscribers writing for information should enclose stamped addressed envelope.

This edition should worthily uphold the standard set by its long line of predecessors and maintain the reputation held as being the most complete and accurate guide to the Press.

THE EDITOR.

*In 1938
nobody believed it possible . . .*

. . . that a series of newly-founded periodicals would not only survive the War but go from strength to strength.

But in the eight troubled years between Munich and UNO six first-class HULTON magazines made their mark . . .

The British public was weaned from its old reading habits to a new form of journalism . . .

The Advertiser found that "A Hulton Publication" had authority among the millions who bought and borrowed the magazines during the years of stringent paper rationing.

.. in 1946

OVER 2,250,000 PEOPLE
BUY HULTON PUBLICATIONS

Picture Post because each week it pictures something of their own lives and something of other people's, setting the daily trivia beside the great event, in matchless photo-journalism.

Leader because

"Leader" has become a "brains trust" in print, where writers discuss pithily whatever they find worth telling.

Lilliput because it focusses the wit and satire, the pungencies of word and illustration, the gifts of irreverence which are Britain's own.

Housewife because women were ready for the sensible "home" magazine, which expected an intelligent readership — and got it.

World Review because people still want their news of world affairs to be accurate, up-to-date and briskly told.

Farmer's Weekly because it is a down-to-earth farming paper, an agricultural news-centre, produced with authority for practical men.

Reach the Laundry Trade regularly— throughout the year

You can readily do so through two well-tried official publications—a monthly Journal and an annual Year Book—issued to launderers by their own trade association. For coverage you are offered almost the entire industry. The Institution of British Launderers, one of the most representative of employers' organisations, issues these publications to all its members. 85% of the commercial laundries in Great Britain and Northern Ireland are members of the Institution.

THE LAUNDERERS' YEAR BOOK

This is the desk book and reference book for the laundry industry. The only publication of its kind for launderers, it contains vital information that needs to be constantly at hand. All advertisements face reading matter and have an all-the-year-round circulation. The book provides a full list of the names, addresses and telephone numbers of Institution members.

Size of page: 10½" × 8½". Printing surface 9" deep × 7" wide.

THE MONTHLY JOURNAL

Issued on the first of each month, the Journal contacts and informs all members. It explains and interprets current laundry problems, changes in legislation, and matters of technical or domestic importance to the laundry industry. Its monthly meeting reports are also of special interest to members.

Size of page: 9½" × 7¼". Printing surface 7¼" × 5½".

THE COVERAGE IS COMPREHENSIVE THE RATES ARE MODERATE

10 instead of 8

THE South Coast Group of newspapers has now been officially increased from eight to ten by the introduction of the Sussex and Surrey Courier and the East Grinstead Observer, thereby adding further valuable inland coverage for National Advertisers.

A new flat rate of 37/6 per s.c. inch has therefore been fixed for the new circulation and increased area, which became operative on Jan. 1st, 1946.

37/6 FLAT RATE
A.B.C. Net Sales
90,865

It is of importance to note that each paper in the Group has its own Editor and a different sphere of influence.

Members of the A.B.C., the Group Certificate for the original eight papers was 74,834, but the A.B.C. Certificate for October 1944 - September 1945 is 90,865, and will undoubtedly exceed 100,000 when facilities are available.

RECENT TITULAR CHANGES AND AMALGAMATIONS

The following list deals only with publications which have changed their titles or have been amalgamated with other publications during the past ten years. The date of issue or of change, where ascertained, follows the title; a second title printed in italic indicates that the list must be again entered with that title until the new-found one is printed in Roman character, when, if further information is required, reference should be made to the publication in the Alphabetical List, page 1. When a publication has received a new title, the contraction bec. signifies "became"; and when a title has been incorporated, the contraction inc. stands for "incorporated with," "amalgamated with" or "merged into."
